Executive bio

As the Executive Director of the Ontario Parks Association, Paul provides province wide leadership in advocating O.P.A.'s mandate of "Protecting Tomorrow Today".

Paul works closely with Landscape Ontario as Manager of Professional Development, and in his spare time manages to teach Landscape Construction and Horticulture skills at Humber College.

Paul represents O.P. A. on the National Parks Advisory Board with the Canadian Parks and Recreation Association (C.P.R.A.) where green infrastructure policies and innovation are being developed and reviewed nationally.

Before joining the OPA, Paul spent twenty six years with the City of Toronto, rising through the ranks to Parks Director. Paul has gained a wealth of knowledge and experience in how parks, forestry and recreation programs are delivered.

Paul admits he is a true Canadian as he loves hockey (yes, he is a frustrated Leafs fan!) loves the C.F.L. and is a fan of both Shania and Stompin Tom Connors.
