

The Roundtable for leaders

Develop Yourself... Support Your Team...
Recharge Your Thinking ... Deliver Results

Why is it that most leadership programs continue to focus on intensive “boot camp” style approaches that require 3-5 day commitments, often offsite and away from your work and personal life? For today’s leaders, every day on the job is like attending “boot camp” and the effects of such jam packed sessions typically wear off before the onslaught of emails and work backlogs are conquered!

The Roundtable for Leaders is specifically designed to help you tackle your their most pressing issues and opportunities head-on... all while staying mindful of your larger strategic career goals.

Organizations in all sectors are in a leadership talent crisis. And, at the same time, there are even fewer resources to give leaders like you the support and coaching you need to maintain and accelerate your momentum. The Roundtable for Leaders helps fill this gap and gives leaders just like you the opportunity to...

- make better decisions, faster
- avoid costly career missteps by expanding your leadership toolkit
- recharge and reflect on your leadership successes and goals
- connect with like-minded peers and expand your professional network

Here’s a snapshot of what you’ll receive:

- 8 peer coaching sessions (3 hours in length, every 6 weeks)
- a comprehensive leadership vision and goal setting process including the completion of a leadership self-assessment that will help you pinpoint your natural strengths and liabilities;
- personal coaching throughout the program (6 individual sessions)
