Executive bio

Stephen Taylor is the President and Chief Operating Officer of Morguard Investments Limited, a real estate advisory company providing a full range of portfolio, asset and property management services across Canada. Established in 1975, Morguard was a pioneer in introducing real estate investment to Canadian pension funds and, with over $10 billion in assets under management, continues as one of the nation's largest and leading real estate managers. Morguard Investments is a wholly owned subsidiary of Morguard Corporation, a real estate company that is publicly traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol "MRC".

Prior to joining Morguard in 1998, Stephen had over 20 years experience providing acquisition, disposition and asset management services to a major Canadian financial institution and two large development companies.
